Brief History of Special Education

(VERY) Brief Timeline

- 1975 – The Education for All Handicapped Children Act
- 1986 - The Education of the Handicapped Act Amendments
- 1990 - The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act

Brief Timeline Continued

- 1997 - The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Amendments
- 2004 - The Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act

Disability is a natural part of the human experience and in no way diminishes the right of individuals to participate in or contribute to society. Improving educational results for children with disabilities is an essential element of our national policy of ensuring equality of opportunity, full participation, independent living, and economic self-sufficiency for individuals with disabilities.

The Purpose of I.D.E.A

“Ensure that all children with disabilities have available to them a free, appropriate public education (FAPE) that is designed to meet their UNIQUE needs and prepare them for post-secondary education, employment, and independent living”

[§ 300.1(a)]

Maryland's Special Education

COMAR – Code of Maryland Regulations

Individualized education program, or IEP, means a written statement for a child with a disability that is developed, reviewed, and revised in accordance with §§ 300.320 through 300.324.

- 34 C.F.R. §300.22

Side-by-Side Comparison

	Section 504	IDEA
Funding?	No	Federal & State
Eligibility Determination	General disability definition	Disability categories & need for special education and related services
Evaluations	Initial & "periodic"	Initial & triannual
FAPE	Needs met as adequately as those without disabilities	Individualized educational program from which child receives educational benefit
Plan	504 Plan	IEP in writing
Enforcement	Office for Civil Rights	State Education Agency

You are the Expert....

“You are her mom you know her best”

You Are HIGHLY QUALIFIED

As a parent, you are included at every step because:

- The law gives you this right.
- Only you have an in-depth, long-term, daily relationship with your child.
- You are the only permanent member of the special education team.
- Research and experience show that special education is more effective when parents are involved.

The Role of Parents in Special Education

- Parents are entitled to be members of the team that develops, reviews, and revises the individualized education program (IEP) for their child.
- If neither parent can attend the IEP meeting, the school must use other methods to ensure their participation, including individual or conference calls.
- Parents are entitled to be members of any group that makes placement decisions for their child.
- If neither parent can attend the meeting where placement is decided, the school must use other methods to ensure their participation, including individual or conference calls, or video conferencing.

The Role of Parents in Special Education

Parental rights of participation can be summarized as follows:

- Parents have the right to participate in meetings related to the evaluation, identification, and educational placement of their child.
- Parents have the right to participate in meetings related to the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to their child.
- Parents are entitled to be members of any group that decides whether their child is a “child with a disability” and meets eligibility criteria for special education and related services.

IEP Teams

Before the Meeting

- Think about the goals you have for your child's future.
- Make a list of what your child can do, likes to do, and needs to learn.
- Make a list of types of help your child needs, including what has worked or not worked before.
- Talk with your child about the IEP/504 process and what they want from it.
- Request written updates from all private service providers.

Before the Meeting

- Confirm who will attend the meeting and their roles.
- Make your own notes about what you would like to discuss.
- Prioritize the key issues to discuss.
- Make copies of any documents the school does not have that you want to discuss. Send them before the meeting and ask that the Team “consider” the information in the report.

If you're prepared, then you're able to feel confident.

-Richard J. Ringer

Getting Ready for the Meeting

- Let the school know in advance if you will need an interpreter or if you need to change the meeting day or time.
- Look over your child's school records and evaluations. Read them carefully! Remember the 5 Day Rule!
- Ask a friend, another parent (or an advocate) to attend the meeting with you. Let the school know if you have invited someone, and ask who the school is sending to the meeting.

What to Bring to the Meeting

- Binder or IEP portfolio
- Organize binder by sections with tabs
 - ✓ Assessments/evaluations
 - ✓ Old IEPs/504s and current IEP/504
 - ✓ Writing samples/homework samples you want to discuss
 - ✓ Medical reports
- Be sure to provide new reports to the team ahead of time – should be no surprises for the team.
- Prepare your PARENT INPUT

INDIVIDUALIZED EDUCATION PROGRAM (IEP) II. PRESENT LEVEL OF ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AND FUNCTIONAL PERFORMANCE

SCHOOL AGED - PRESENT LEVEL OF ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AND FUNCTIONAL PERFORMANCE

What is the parental input regarding the student's educational program?

What are the student's strengths, interest areas, significant personal attributes, and personal accomplishments? (Include preferences and interests for post-school outcomes, if appropriate.)

How does the student's disability affect his/her involvement in the general education curriculum?

Parental Input!!!

During the IEP Meeting

- Find out how your child will participate in the regular classroom, non-academic activities with peers, and assessments.
- Ask for interpretation of test results and clarification of new terms or programs.
- Get answers to ALL of your questions.
- Take notes and consider recording the meeting.

During the IEP Meeting

- You are part of the team (it shouldn't be you against them).
- Believe in yourself.
- Refer to your notes during the meeting to make sure your concerns are addressed
- Watch your emotions. Ask for a break if you need to calm yourself.

After the Meeting

- Thank the IEP team!
- Send an email to everyone summarizing the meeting goals and listing the people assigned to specific tasks.
- Stay in contact with teachers.
- Monitor your child's progress.
- Ask teachers what you can do to help reinforce skills at home.
